WELCOME TO ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE!

Our parish community welcomes all those visiting with us today. We thank you for joining our community in praising the Lord as we remember His great love and mercy for us. We hope that you will join us again soon and bring a friend. If, per chance, you are looking for a spiritual home based on the Sacred Scriptures, the teaching of the Apostles, the ancient Church Traditions in the context of a liturgical life and fellowship, please consider our parish! Speak with Father Michael or Deacon Michael if you would like more information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BISHOP APPEAL STATUS. Folks, we have reached 81% of our goal. We have $3,125.00 left to make our target of $16,775.00. As of May 28, we raised $13,555.00 for our Bishop's Appeal. We would love to receive a 30% rebate for reaching our goal but understand some people's financial situation may not allow a second pledge. Everyone can give something for their first pledge whether $5, $50, $275, or $1,000 or more. If you are able to give a second pledge, it would help us greatly! (Fr. Michael is ready to make a second pledge too.) For those who have donated, A BIG THANK YOU! Although the pledge forms say the appeal is due on May 31, all of us have an extension for when the funds are due at the Pastoral Center. This means, all payments MUST be received at our parish NO LATER than June 11 in order to be processed and sent in time. Thank you.

MATINS TIME CHANGED. Please note that beginning June 3, the regular Daily Matins time on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays is changing from 8:00am to 7:30am. Festal Matins tend to be scheduled at 9:00am when they occur.

Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month of June: "that national leaders may firmly commit themselves to ending the arms trade, which victimizes so many innocent people."

FUNERALS: It is with great sadness that we heard that Sr. Jean Marie Cihota passed away on May 18, 2017 and had her funeral at our cathedral on May 21 & 22. She was a great bundle of Christ's light and joy at St. Stephen's and our eparchial Pastoral Center and helped with a lot of important work. We will continue to miss her. On May 21, we also heard of a former parishioner who was with us in the 90's, James Sandrock, passing away as well and had his funeral at St. Stephen's on June 2. Let us remember them in our prayers and remember that we never know the day nor the hour when Our Lord Jesus Christ will call us to Himself. Let us be ready!

FEAST OF PENTECOST: A nice explanation of the feast of Pentecost comes from The Liturgical Year of the Byzantine-Slavonic Rite by Basil Shereghy (1968 Byzantine Seminary Press: pp. 47-50):

Pentecost commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles. This happened fifty days after the resurrection, on an ancient Jewish festival called, in the Pentateuch, the Feast of Weeks [Leviticus 23: 15-22] (2 Maccabees 12:32) since it was celebrated exactly seven weeks after Passover. As it came approximately fifty days after the Passover, it was also called even in pre-Christian times, "Pentecost," from the Greek word for fiftieth.....

Pentecost also marks the beginning of the work and activity of the Holy Spirit. Before His departure, Jesus promised that He would not leave us orphans. He would send the Paraclete, the Comforter, who would teach us all things.....

On this day, churches and private homes are decked with green branches and green flowers; this is why Pentecost is also called the "Green Holy Day." Other names for Pentecost are "Whitsunday," "Holy Sunday," or "Rusalia."

Pentecost is the feast when the Holy Spirit goes forth to conquer, to shape, and to create, especially in the form of three great graces: Love, zeal, and the spirit of prayer. The first grace, love, is the essence of the day, for the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Love; Pentecost is the most sublime revelation of love. Love is born at Christmas, grown through suffering on Golgotha and becomes glowing, conquering and victorious at Pentecost. The second grace, zeal, is what St. John the Baptist called the "baptism of fire." Jesus Himself said that He came to "cast fire on the earth" and wished it to burn. This is the fire that still burns in the veins of the Church, praying for and longing for sanctity. The third grace of Pentecost, the spirit of prayer, is the very breath of the Holy Spirit. We have to beg for this spirit of prayer and guard it zealously. When we have won it, we must give thanks for it. If we lack it, we must seek it. Grace and prayer go together.

The whole week after Pentecost is free from fast and the faithful are permitted to eat meat the whole week. The Monday following Pentecost is the Feast of the Holy Trinity.
